JO EKER, 31, a recruitment manager, is marrying at London's Dorchester next May 'Our venue is big and grand, so I'm looking for a wow-factor dress to match! I didn't realise how special this dress is until I tried it on. The cut is perfect and the lace is exquisite; I love the way the floral details cascade down. It's girly but also really striking. The earrings look great with my hair down. As for the bouquet, pink and purple are my favourite colours, so it's ideal.'

'It's such a beautiful time of year to get married. Most people feel at their best in the summer and I love the look of a summer wedding.

Vera Wang's dresses always make an impact and this is no exception. The tulle layering and the large bow are amazing; it has real drama.'

CHRISTA CAPATI, 26, a PR manager, will say I do in Philadelphia in October 'I'd like something feminine but I need to stay warm; I can't have chattering teeth! The lace on this dress is stunning and the shape is perfect for me. The bolero would keep me warm but it's not too bulky so I could keep it on all day if I needed to. I love my accessories, they're stylishly discreet and don't detract from the dress, gorgeous hair or make-up.'

BEATRICE SJÖQVIST, 28, a business consultant for an IT company, will walk down the aisle in Sweden next summer

'My fiancé is Australian and I'm Swedish. I'm desperate to find a stylish but easy-to-wear dress that won't get ruined in transit. This dress is perfect: the light pleated material is elegant and it's easy to pack. The detailing on the belt and straps is so pretty, I love it.
