Calne Based Makeup Artist Celebrates Promotion

Sarah Brock is a fully qualified Professional Makeup Artist and is the Artistic Director of Makeup for Daniel Sandler. Daniel Sandler is one of the UK's top celebrity makeup artists - his long list of celebrity clients has included Naomi Campbell, Kate Moss, Geri Halliwell, Yasmin Le bon and many more.

Before working with Daniel Sandler, Sarah was already a successful freelance makeup artist. In 2006 and 2007 Sarah was featured in BRIDES Magazine as one of the South West's leading makeup artists for bridal makeup and had worked on many fashion celebrity photo shoots. She was delighted to be selected out of 100's of other makeup artists to be part of Daniel Sandler's team.

Sarah was chosen by Daniel to be the Head Makeup Artist at the 2007 Elle Magazine Style Awards. Sarah then toured the UK with Daniel on the GHD Expert Tour, where she was a makeup artist and guest speaker. Shortly after returning from the tour, she was promoted to Artistic Director of Makeup, making her Daniel Sandler's second in command. Sarah has also worked with Daniel on celebrity photo shoots and has written makeup articles for many newspapers, bridal publications and most recently, Now Magazine.

September was an exciting month for Sarah, as she worked with Daniel at London Fashion Week, where they created looks for the designer Georgina Harley-Smith.

Sarah has a makeup studio, which is based in Hallmark Photography in Calne, Wiltshire and also travels nationally, where she is required for fashion/photographic/catwalk makeup, weddings and makeup lessons.
