

Sarah Brock in the Chippenham News

Top stylist shows off her skills

Sarah Brock

A CALNE-based makeup artist has shown off her skills at a style awards ceremony featuring a host of celebrities.

Sarah Brock was chosen as head makeup artist for the Daniel Sandler team at the Elle Style Awards last month, and had the job of working on the Elle magazine staff.

She said: "I was so excited when I was chosen as part of the team, but to also be chosen by Daniel to head the team was an absolute privilege."

Mrs Brock was one of only 15 makeup artists out of 200 interviewed last year to be selected as a member of Daniel Sandler's team.

As well as working on the Elle staff, Mrs Brock also received a recent call to help Daniel Sandler with model Nell McAndrew's makeup.

The 34-year-old mother of two is also using the skills picked up from one of Britain's leading makeup artists to help her customers in Wiltshire.

"Being based in Wiltshire means that ladies in this area have access to one-to-one or group lessons with a makeup artist who is trained by Daniel personally," said Mrs Brock.

"As well as being a successful bridal and fashion makeup artist I am able to teach ladies the tricks of the trade and offer them makeup advice."