

Celebrity make-up artist Daniel Sandler has signed up Sarah Brock to his regional team

Sarah's made up to be chosen for team

A WOMAN from Calne is celebrating after being chosen to join a prestigious team of make-up artists.

Already a professional make-up artist, Sarah Brock, 36, has joined the regional team of celebrity make-up artist Daniel Sandler, who has worked with the likes of Naomi Campbell, Kate Moss and Yasmin Le Bon.

She has just completed being trained personally by Sandler and as well as being able to sell his products she could also be asked to assist him at fashion shows and photo shoots.

Mrs Brock said: "This is such an exciting time for me. Daniel Sandler is one of the UK's most successful make-up artists."

Sandler sells his own range of products online and in Harrods,

London, but the idea of his regional team is to bring his make-up and expert knowledge about putting on make-up to women all over the country.

Mrs Brock had to go through a tough selection process to be chosen for the team.

"I had to go up to London and be interviewed by his business manager and then had to do a makeover in front of Daniel and show him my portfolio," she said.

"It's a privilege to be chosen."

Mrs Brock offers make-up lessons and makeovers from her studio in Hallmark Photographic Studio, Calne, and provides a mobile service. Contact her on 07976 064143 or email sarah.brock@danielsandler.com
